Music and Readings for Passiontide: On Sunday evening 18th March, we were treated to a feast for our ears and souls. Martin Ellis played music from different composers ranging from Johann Sebastian Bach to Harold Darke on our new organ. In addition to the congregation's hymns, Raymond Wilson and Margaret Woods read the Passiontide stories from the Gospels and Margaret's grandson Jamie Goodwin sang several carefully chosen solos. All these complemented each other and took us on a journey of meditation on this important part of the liturgical year. It was a wonderful evening. A retiring collection for the defibrillator fund raised £240 (including gift aid).
