Choir Concert: On Saturday 16th December we had a wonderful evening of music, drama and recitation. We heard and watched quite a different version of the Christmas story interspersed with music sung by the church choir, a children's choir from Helen Peats' school and music played by talented instrumentalists on recorders, a flute and a clarinet. So many people were involved in making this evening a success that it is not possible to mention them all here. After the concert we enjoyed delicious refreshments and had a good time chatting. The concert raised £712.54 for the East Anglian Children's Hospice. Very many thanks to everybody who made this evening happen and to all who supported it. Freddie
